Sunny Kennedy, the only female in a family of blue blood male detectives, is determined to prove testosterone isn't the only qualification required to solve a cold case. Handcuffed while undercover then taken to the precinct by an attractive detective, her domineering family demands she work with Detective Judson Blackwolf, or she's off the case. Judson Blackwolf thinks women in law enforcement should work behind the scenes. The prospect of working with his Captain's sexy daughter doesn't thrill him. He only agrees in hopes of solving the murder of his one time mentor's daughter. Once the case is over, he's moving to Montana to heal his wounds from the loss of his last partner. But when their investigation takes a dangerous turn, Sunny and Judd soon realize their feelings for each other cannot be denied.
