Who Would Like a Christmas Tree?: A Tree for All Seasons Ellen Bryan Obed

Who would like a Christmas tree?

That all depends on when you ask.

In January, in February, in March, in April . . .

the black-capped chickadees, the field mice, the white-tailed deer, and the woodcock, come to claim the tree.

They want it for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, for shelter and protection, for a place to start a new family.

Can a Christmas tree be all that?

Yes, and even more . . .

The year has just begun!
