Who is family? Is it blood or the people who always seem to be right there when everyone else disappears? What is love? Is it controlled by our thoughts or is it a feeling that only God can manipulate? Follow Vic from Landover, Maryland to corporate America in this tale of friendship, love, family and money. As she struggles through her teenage years and blossoms into a business professional, she learns that there is no right way to wrong. With best friend Dino, multiple love interest and a combination of success and failures, Vic learns how to adapt in the cruel and ugly world of money over everything. Close your eyes and imagine a family crisis, the burning desire for greatness, the hooded hood and all the trouble that you could run into. Now Read!
