...Concerning the repeal of the nuisance act there may be honest doubts in some minds whether Dr. Gallinger agreed to participate in this part of the bargain. For myself I have a full belief that he was committed to it. Greene was an active promoter and indeed the leader of the repeal movement. I have been informed that he was to be paid money for his services. C. A. Sulloway advocated the repeal. The importance of the repeal to Jones and Sinclair has been shown to be incalculable. They had Dr. Gallinger in their clutches. They had agreed to make, and had made him senator. Is it likely they let him off from a bargain which so tightly held his guilty partners, Greene and Sulloway? I do not claim that he agreed to openly advocate the repeal, but I do believe that he agreed to aid in furnishing votes sufficient to secure the repeal. As the time for the voting drew near he dreaded the issue and a plan was formed to let the vote in the house be postponed until after the 4th of March, when he would become senator. But the charge being made that there was a bargain and that the vote was to be delayed, he changed his tactics and spoke and voted against the bill. Greene and Sulloway championed the other side, but it was defeated by 153 to 144. If it had not been for the publication of the charge against Dr. Gallinger, I believe the bill would have passed the house, with his aid, whatever his vote might have been. But he was safe in his senatorship; he is as capable of breaking as of making a bargain, and is versed in duplicity; and so he dissembled, speaking one way and working the other. Messrs. Jones and Sinclair bitterly complained of him as false to his contract. But. they must bear as well as they can their disappointment. They received from him as large a dividend...
