The John Totaro Diaries: Where "A Cry for Justice" Began John Totaro

The "John Totaro Diaries" Where "A Cry for Justice" Began This is where it all began. My struggle to fight the system in which controlled my life for the times exposed in this most heart felt and detailed writing ever released. My drive to get closure and complete the madness is at hand. This final proof of the struggles and chaos that consumed me will not only shock you but will let you know the determination one has when innocents is at hand. I hope that in some way one might find it useful and realize that sometimes your passion in seeking self redemption is important in moving on to the functioning reality one must pursue. I appreciate all the interest in the readers who find this very emotional book a way of clarity and an example to those who seek peace in their lives and want to move on. Do what you have to do to be a real functioning part of society and have the ability to forget and sever the ties of such destructive attacks on ones person. Health and wealth to all, thank you.
