Ryan “Sully” Sullivan, fresh back from deployment for the Army, is the newest IT employee for Turcotte Industries. He expected jammed printers and forgotten passwords, not an entire floor of trouble-making women or a pair of glorious legs that always seemed to wear the most dangerous heels...

Bailey Beck, writer for Âme magazine, is tired of being the fifth wheel around her coupled-off friends and is maybe just a little tiny bit envious. When the handsome new IT guy shows up to fix her coworker’s “broken” printer, she’s instantly infatuated, but one-night stands just aren’t her thing.

Can an office flirtation turn into something more, or will misunderstandings and flirty redheads ruin Ryan and Bailey’s chance at true happiness?
