America's Providential History Teacher's Guide Stephen McDowell

America's Providential History Teacher's Guide is designed for use with America's Providential History by Mark Beliles and Stephen McDowell when teaching students from middle school age and up. The Guide contains questions for each chapter, supplemental readings from America's Providential History, A Documentary Sourcebook, lists of materials for further study, chapter outlines, tests, and more. In addition to presenting much evidence of America's Christian history, APH and APH, A Documentary Sourcebook also teach Biblical principles of education, government, politics, economics, and family life — they provide instruction in a Biblical worldview. Working through these three resources will provide a solid foundation for those desiring a Biblical worldview and an understanding of providential history. Thinking Biblically is necessary to bring Godly transformation to America and fulfilling God's call upon our lives.
