Somebody STOP the music!! The drinks have ceased, and the revelers are leaving. In an attempt to reach our homes before the sun does, we are inevitably met with her dear mother-in-law: reality. Reality in the form of raw emotions, elation, pain, confusion, negative news, goals, and most importantly, dreams. This book is fodder for post-party thoughts and emotions for the ride home on any given Saturday night. (Or Monday, or Wednesday for those of us who just can't stop dancing!) Read it to experience the roller coaster, the magic that is the dash home into the horizon, and be inspired to follow your dreams and to change the world while you're at it. These are the inner workings of a party girl after all of the fun is over.
