Chihuly (French Edition) Dale Chihuly, Nathalie Bondil, Timothy Anglin Burgard, Gerald W. R. Ward
Filled with dazzling color and dynamic forms, this comprehensive volume on Dale Chihuly, one of America's foremost artists working with glass, proves that the medium has transcended the decorative arts to become a means of contemporary artistic expression in its own right. Dale Chihuly has been exploring the plastic potential of blown glass for more than 40 years. His spectacular pieces challenge the apparent fragility of the medium and transport us to a magical world. This exquisite volume follows Chihuly's career through photographs of his series works as well as his monumental site-specific installations. Inspired by nature, Chihuly's pieces explode with color and vibrate with life. Their expressiveness and spontaneity recall Jackson Pollock's action paintings, yet their visceral physicality and playfulness have made these pieces some of the most broadly acclaimed works in contemporary art. As this book shows, Chihuly's work is at once mesmerizing, thought provoking, and visually seductive.

Floyd Eichner:

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Chihuly (French Edition) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
