(8 Audio Cassettes) Caroline Venable has everything her Southern heritage promised: money, prestige, a rich husband, a magnificent home and above all her island in the Low Country that her beloved Granddaddy left her. And if she drinks just a bit too much, her husband, Clay, knows the reason why and is comforted by her escape to the island. A place of incomparable beauty, its where Caroline goes to lose herself and simply forget. When Clay's business falls on hard times, he must develop the island or lose the company he spent his life building. Caroline must make some choices, and she needs to do it sober. She asks herself, "What is so important about the island - her island - that she would die for it?"
