From the author of The Personal History of Rachel Dupree, shortlisted for the Orange Award for New Writers and longlisted for the Orange Prize.

1900. Young pianist Catherine Wainwright flees the fashionable town of Dayton, Ohio in the wake of a terrible scandal. Heartbroken and facing destitution, she finds herself striking up correspondence with a childhood admirer, the recently widowed Oscar Williams. In desperation she agrees to marry him, but when Catherine travels to Oscar's farm on Galveston Island, Texas—a thousand miles from home—she finds she is little prepared for the life that awaits her. The island is remote, the weather sweltering, and Oscar's little boy Andre is grieving hard for his lost mother. And though Oscar tries to please his new wife, the secrets of the past sit uncomfortably between them. Meanwhile for Nan Ogden, Oscar's housekeeper, Catherine's sudden arrival has come as a great shock. For not only did she promise Oscar's first wife that she would be the one to take care of little Andre, but she has feelings for Oscar which she is struggling to suppress. And when the worst storm in a generation descends, the women will find themselves tested as never before.

From reader reviews:

Ramona Johnson:

What do you in relation to book? It is not important together with you? Or just adding material if you want something to explain what your own problem? How about your time? Or are you busy particular person? If you don't have spare time to complete others business, it is make you feel bored faster. And you have spare time? What did you do? Everyone has many questions above. They should answer that question mainly because just their can do that will. It said that about book. Book is familiar on every person. Yes, it is right. Because start from on kindergarten until university need this kind of The Promise to read.

Jesus Sandiford:

Nowadays reading books become more than want or need but also be a life style. This reading behavior give you lot of advantages. The advantages you got of course the knowledge the actual information inside the book that improve your knowledge and information. The knowledge you get based on what kind of reserve you read, if you want attract knowledge just go with education books but if you want sense happy read one together with theme for entertaining including comic or novel. Often the The Promise is kind of guide which is giving the reader unpredictable experience.

Ryan Donahue:

Information is provisions for people to get better life, information presently can get by anyone at everywhere. The information can be a know-how or any news even restricted. What people must be consider whenever those information which is inside former life are difficult to be find than now could be taking seriously which one works to believe or which one the particular resource are convinced. If you have the unstable resource then you have it as your main information you will have huge disadvantage for you. All of those possibilities will not happen throughout you if you take The Promise as your daily resource information.
