A Fairy Tale Retelling...

In desperate search for a bride, Cedric Moore lets a ball of fate do the job for him, hitting a homeless, severely malnourished woman in the process. He has given his word. He would marry her regardless of how she looks. But now he isn't sure anymore.

Alona Gainsborough's carefree life has turned upside down when a witch casts a spell on her, turning her into a frog by day and back to a woman by night. To escape the horror of being picked on by people, she lived by the swamp for six years, waiting for a person to love her and free her from her curse.

Finally, Cedric Moore enters her life, but he doesn't find her any appealing at all. Still, she has to take a shot at him.

*This is a STAND ALONE book. For Mature Readers.
