“I was delighted to come across this book. It shows what four senior women can do if they join forces. It was hilarious and fast-paced.”

Let's Make A Miracle is a zany romp of four senior citizen women who decide to take matters into their own hands when their prayers appear to be unanswered. Faced with their Tampa, Florida parish's imminent closing and being developed into a casino resort by a New York real estate tycoon, they concoct their own “miracle”.

“Many of us probably picture senior citizens as helpless. However, the ones that you will encounter in this story have some spunk! It's hard to picture an eighty year-old that uses the word ‘epic’, let alone one that has a Justin Bieber song playing as their ringtone. In this story, such a senior citizen exists!”

Of course, their miracle backfires and is a dismal disaster resulting in their parish being closed. As the four miracle seniors? They face worldwide scorn until...

The takeaway lesson at the book's conclusion: never mess with a senior citizen, especially four senior citizen women.

“Very captivating story...highly recommended!”
