The author dares to challenge the scriptural validity of much that goes by the name “Christian” in America today—including evangelical churches. In the scriptures we read about the “faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints” (Jude 3) yet it is an open question just how much of that there is in our day.

In their eagerness to fill churches an alarming number of modern preachers have “watered down” the gospel to make it palatable and “seeker-friendly.” But is it even the gospel? Or are multitudes being given a false hope of heaven, their eternal souls sacrificed on the altar of religious “success”?

Even in the Apostle Paul’s day he found it necessary to question the salvation of many who professed Christ. It was his admonition to the Corinthian believers in 2 Corinthians 13:5 to, “Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you — unless, of course, you fail the test?” God’s Word gives us all the help we need to do just that.

Real biblical salvation was a life-changing thing. However, today, what was once considered normal Christianity is now considered to be a sort of special “deluxe edition,” optional, reserved for a dedicated few. A whole new class, the “carnal Christian,” has been invented to justify the countless numbers who have professed Christ yet who have no real fundamental change in their lives. They are told to pray a little prayer “inviting Jesus into their hearts” and are told that they are saved and that heaven is sure. But is this biblical Christianity or a modern corruption? Eternity hinges on the answer.

And then there are the remnant of genuine believers who have struggled with doubts and questions and need some solid scriptural ground to stand upon. The hope is that this book will address both needs. Will you accept the challenge?
