Fallen, but Not Forgotten Frances D. Munson

Fallen, but Not Forgotten is a story of a woman who had strayed about as far from a Christian lifestyle as a person could get, but through God's grace and sometimes God's firm hand, she is now using her story to show others that no one is beneath God's grace and love. This book is an illustration of the fact that God is not only the Almighty and the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth, but also our Father. He will treat us as a good Father should, gently loving us when appropriate and disciplining us when we need it. His willingness to shake her world is what turned her life of mistakes into what is now her life's mission--to show the world that there is NO mistake too bad, NO place beneath His Love or Mercy.
