Christopher T. Leland

This book arises out of twenty-five years of both writing fiction and teaching creative writing at university level. Its purpose is to provide a helpful and easy to follow reference guide to Story Press grammar and mechanics that is specifically addressed to writers of fiction and creative non-fiction. The Creative Writer's Style Guide provides the rules of grammar, punctuation and style as well as great advice on effective writing. Beginners and more experienced writers - as well as editors and agents who have struggled to adapt the standard style manual rules to the particular demands of fiction and memoir writing will find the answers they need here.
