Charlie's Requiem: A Going Home Novella Angery American, Walt Browning

Charlie is good at her work. As a hard charging drug rep with the brains and talent to make it to the top, she has the world at her feet. Then, the lights went out, and everything changed. An E.M.P. decimates the United States, leaving the country in the dark. With modern technology suddenly and permanently turned off, society's dark side quickly takes over. Caught on the road, she teams up with two new companions and they fight their way towards safety and freedom. Criminals, gangs and worse stand between them and the safety of a friend's farm.

A Going Home Novella based on the best-selling series by Angery American, Charlie and her two companions must find a way out of the big city, or die trying.
