This is a suspense novel told from the perspective of Piet Maas, a newspaperman whose career has seen better days. In hopes of reviving his career with a sensational story, he follows the trail of a glamorous socialite who is on the run after her lover is found murdered in a Swiss villa. What follows is an expertly crafted satire of the paparazzi-driven media combined with a classic espionage tale filled with breathless suspense. Eric Clifford Ambler (June 28,1909 - October 22 1998) was a well-known British author and screenplay writer. His spy novels brought a new realism to the genre.
