One of the most important decisions about family life is whether mom will stay home with the children, or work full-time outside the home. Unfortunately, not all couples have the freedom to make that decision based on their desires rather than financial demands. Team Work empowers those parents who would like to choose home by providing them with inspiration, practical advice, and up-to-date on-line and off-line resources to help them achieve their goals.

Contents of Team Work include how to build your husband's confidence, determine if he is underpaid, help him to negotiate a raise, find a new, higher-paying job, or build a business of his own, and how to use the Internet to help him succeed.
