A six-man crew flying a B26 bomber to attack the Japanese Fleet at Guadalcanal must again face their fears as they endure enemy fighters and flak over the target. Yet this mission brings greater trials when the bomber is damaged and they are forced to jump into enemy territory. Captain Paul Larson's leadership and faith will be tested more than he ever thought possible as his crew must fight the elements of the jungles of the island along with the possibility of capture by a brutal enemy.
