Literature and the Writing Process (8th Edition) Elizabeth McMahan, Susan X. Day, Robert W. Funk

Writing process covered in EVERY chapter. Focus on the writing process throughout the book, not just as an added element but as an integral part of the literary study. This allows students to improve their writing while enjoying the study of literature.

- Chapter 4: Researched Writing has been revised and moved to the front of the book. The chapter now follows the initial chapters on the writing process and provides easy-to-follow instruction for planning, researching, and documenting a paper using secondary sources, including a detailed description of the MLA Style for citing and crediting these sources. The chapter also contains a new documented student essay and is generously supplemented by Ideas for Researched Writing throughout the book
- Seven sample student papers, some with drafts, instructor or peer comments and prewriting materials, that illustrate how to write about each genre and how to do researched writing. Students can see and understand how to go about devising and drafting their essays; they profit from seeing the writing process illustrated at every stage.
- Three kinds of writing prompts included in each chapter allow instructors to choose among them flexibly depending on his or her goals and philosophy.
- The single text for class saves them money and is convenient.
